

This notice provides patient's rights:

1. To impartial access to treatment regardless of race, creed, sex, national origin, handicap or financial status.
2. To participate in the development and implementation of your plan of care.
3. To have your representative make informed decisions regarding your care, as allowed under state law, to be informed of your health status, be involved in care planning and treatment being able to request or refuse treatment. This right must not be construed as a mechanism to demand the provision of treatment or services medically unnecessary to inappropriate.
4. To exercise your rights while receiving care or treatment in the hospital without coercion, discrimination or retaliation.
5. To be informed of the right to have pain treated as effectively as possible.
6. To formulate advance directives and to have hospital staff and practitioners who provide care in the hospital comply with these directives.
7. To have a family member or representative of your choice and your own physician notified promptly of your admission to the hospital.
8. To personal privacy.
9. To receive care in a safe setting.
10. To be free from all forms of abuse or harassment.
11. To be free from restraints of any form that are not medically necessary or are used as a means of coercion, discipline, convenience or retaliation by staff.
12. To the confidentiality of your clinical records.
13. To access information contained in your clinical records within a reasonable time frame. The hospital must not frustrate the legitimate efforts of you or an authorized individual to gain access to your medical records and must actively seek to meet these requests as quickly as its record keeping system permits.
14. To know the professional status of any person providing your care or services.
15. To know the reasons for any proposed change in the professional staff responsible for your care or services.
16. To be fully informed of and to consent or refuse to participate in any unusual, experimental or research project without compromising your access to services.
17. To access the cost of services rendered within a reasonable period of time.
18. To be informed of the source of the hospital's reimbursement for your services and of any limitations, which may be placed upon your care.
19. To know the reasons for your transfer either within or outside the hospital.
20. To know the relationship(s) of the hospital to other persons or organizations participating in the provision of your care.

21. To be informed of your visitation rights, including any clinical restriction or limitation on such rights.
22. To be informed of the right, subject to your consent, to receive the visitors who you designate, including, but not limited to, a spouse, a domestic partner (including same sex domestic partner), another family member, or a friend, and your right to withdraw or deny such consent at any time.
23. To expect that visitation privileges will not be restricted, limited, or otherwise denied on the basis of race, color, national origin, religion, sex, gender identity, sexual orientation or disability.
24. To know that all visitors will enjoy full and equal visitation privileges consistent with your preferences.
25. To have an interpreter provided to you free of charge. if you need one, and to have one provided to you in a manner or language you understand free of charge.
26. To know your family's right of informed consent of donation of organs and tissues.
27. To file a complaint or grievance.